Please complete the sections below that are applicable to your state income tax withholding elections. If you do not return this completed form, we will automatically withhold state income tax from your pension distributions based on the default requirements for your state of residency. You may elect to not have state income taxes withheld only if your state of residence allows such an election.

Please note the following:

- ~The completion of this form is optional for clergy members.
- ~Beneficiaries of the International Clergy Pension Plan should not complete this form.

Section A: Mandatory State Income Tax Withholding

Complete this section if you legally reside in one of the states listed below. If you do not legally reside in one of the states listed below, please proceed to Section B.

The following states generally require income taxes to be withheld from periodic pension distributions made to an individual if federal income taxes are withheld from those payments:

- Arkansas
- Delaware
- Kansas
- Massachusetts
- North Carolina
- Vermont
- California¹
- Georgia
- Maine
- Michigan⁵
- Oklahoma
- Virginia
- Connecticut²
- Iowa³
- Maryland⁴
- Nebraska
- Oregon

Although withholding is generally required if federal income taxes are withheld, some states allow residents to affirmatively elect to NOT have state income taxes withheld even if you have elected federal income tax withholding. If you reside in one of the following states, you may elect to not have state income taxes withheld by electing "No, do not withhold state income tax" below:

Arkansas, California¹, Delaware, Georgia, Michigan⁵, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon, or Vermont

Residents of Arkansas, California¹, Delaware, Georgia, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Nebraska, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon, Vermont, or Virginia:

State of residence for tax purposes: _____

Yes, withhold state income tax

OR

No, do not withhold state income tax

Married Single

Number of Allowances _____

Withhold Additional Amount $ _____

I understand that I may check this box only if I reside in one of the states listed above that allows me to elect to not have state income taxes withheld or if I have elected not to have federal taxes withheld.

If you reside in any of the following states, you must check the corresponding box for your state of residence for tax purposes:

- California¹ Residents: Withhold at 10% of federal income tax amount withheld
- Connecticut² Residents: Withhold at 6.99% of federal taxable distribution (Connecticut residents have the option to check this box or complete the actual State of Connecticut Form CT-W4P)
- Iowa³ Residents: Withhold at 5% of federal taxable distribution
- Maryland⁴ Residents: Withhold at 7.75% of federal income tax amount withheld
- Michigan⁵ Residents: Withhold at 4.25% of federal taxable distribution

¹ Residents of California must elect to withhold at 10% of federal income tax amount withheld for pension payments.
² Residents must complete and return the State of Connecticut Form CT-W4P, Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments, or may elect to have 6.99% state income tax withheld. (Form CT-W4P can be found at https://portal.ct.gov/-/media/DRS/Forms/2022/WTH/CT-W4P_1222.pdf)
³ Residents of Iowa can only elect to withhold at 5% of federal taxable distribution for pension payments.
⁴ Residents of Maryland can elect to withhold at 7.75% of federal income tax amount for pension payments.
⁵ Residents born before 1946 are generally not required to have income tax withheld on pension payments and should complete Section B.

Section B: Voluntary State Income Tax Withholding

If you are a resident of a jurisdiction not listed above, that state will allow you to determine whether you want state income tax withheld from your periodic pension distributions. Please complete this section if you want to have state income taxes withheld for your state of residence. If you do not legally reside in one of the states listed below, please proceed to Section C.
